

IT'S CHRISTMAS!

Doing it Digitally this Festive Season

It's all happening online!

For many reasons, celebrating the festive season this year face to face isn't for everyone. But there's no need to cancel all plans.

Getting together with colleagues for a Christmas lunch, dinner or party may be off the menu, but with a bit of imagination we can help you celebrate, connect, share and have some fun.

We just do it differently this year.

We do it digitally. Perhaps with some physical bits thrown in – from food to fancy dress.

So no need to venture out – we'll bring the party to your kitchen. We know it's not the same as gathering together, but there are many creative ways to bring some festive fun to groups of all sizes, whether it be a team cook-a-long, or a full-on virtual party.

CHRISTMAS COCKTAILS

The virtual cocktail masterclasses are run through a virtual meeting platform and are entertaining, informative and lots of fun.

Participants will be guided through making the cocktails by one of our charming and engaging mixologist presenters. We have a range of deliciously simple Christmas cocktail recipes that everyone can follow.

Once the cocktail menu has been decided, we send Christmas themed gift boxes to each guest including all ingredients, cocktail equipment (excluding glassware) for the chosen cocktails.
